CITY RETAINS TWO ATTORNEYS IN DAVIS SUIT

Two lawyers were retained by the Upland city council last night to defend Chief of Police Eugene L. Mueller in a court action brought against him by Rev. Roy E. Davis. Davis is suing Mueller and nine others for $504,000 on charges of malicious prosecution and false arrest.

The councilmen agreed to retain City Attorney Edward E. Gray as chief counsel and Attorney Fred A. Wilson of San Bernardino as associate counsel.

In adopting a resolution hiring the lawyers, the city council did not acknowledge city responsibility for the acts of its chief of police but declared its judgment that he had acted upon good faith with reasonable cause in the interests of the public.

Mr. Gray explained to the councilmen that he would assume responsibility to the council in the case and would personally handle all preliminary work, such as obtaining necessary information and studying the law in the matter. Mr. Wilson, it was said, would handle much of the trial in court.

Mayor Eugene Nisbet, Councilman Richard A. Ibanez and City Manager Richard G. Manley talked with Mr. Wilson in San Bernardino last week, it was said, and Mr. Wilson wrote a letter to the council agreeing to defend the chief of police. He asked a retainer fee of $250 plus $100 daily for each day in court. Mr. Gray said his fee would be $500.

Upland Board Sends Three Men to Military Service

Three men chosen for military service have passed their physical examinations and have been inducted for army service, Edgar C. Pierce, chief clerk of the Upland Selective Service board, announced today.

They are Emilio Galvan Valadez, Jr., and Manuel Moncada of Upland and David Rodriguez Munoz of Cucamonga, who was transferred from the Indio board.

City Given Mutual Ai dPolice Plan

Plans prepared by the California State War council to promote mutual aid between the police departments of the various county and municipal governments were sent to him for study by city councilmen, City Clerk Ray C. Norton told the council last night. The plans were turned over to the police committee.

Upland and Ontario have been cooperating in the mutual aid plan for several months, Chief of Police Eugene L. Mueller reported recently.

Permit Issued to Improve Store

Building permit was issued today to Mrs. F. W. Palmer to remove a partition and alter the interior of the store at 270 North Second avenue.

Other permits issued this week were to Ray Sherwood to alter the interior of the dwelling at 815 West Seventeenth street and to Harry Halstead to reroof the dwelling at 320 South First avenue.

Teenagers To Hear New "Boogie-Woogie" At Dance Tomorrow

Rev. John A. Luther, director of the Upland Teenagers, announced today that 12 recordings of the latest "Boogie Woogie" tunes have been bought and will be played for the first time at the teenagers' dance tomorrow evening in the Scout house, from 7:30 until 11 o'clock.

Attendance at each of the last two Saturday night dances was approximately 60, he said.

City To Install One Street Light

Street light will be installed on San Antonio avenue at Alpine street for the benefit of girls attending Beulah college and academy, City Manager Richard G. Manley told the city council last night, but placing of a second light on San Antonio avenue at Vernon drive will have to wait until after the war. He said application was made to the federal government for material to place two street lights but one was authorized.

UPLAND LIBRARY TRUSTEES RESIGN

Resignation of Mrs. Helen W. Dougherty and Mrs. Roswell R. Brownson as members of the Upland library board of trustees was announced at the meeting of the city council last night by Mrs. F. H. Manker, librarian.

Mrs. Manker, in a letter to the council, said Mrs. Dougherty, had resigned because of ill health and Mrs. Brownson because of insurmountable transportation difficulties.

Mrs. Dougherty was the board's secretary and had served 18 years. Mrs. Brownson had been a board member two years.

Mr. Cook reported this morning that successors to Mrs. Dougherty and Mrs. Brownson will be discussed at the next board meeting November 9.

Three Uplanders Speak At Ycaipa Meeting

Three Uplanders were scheduled to appear on the program this afternoon at the meeting of the San Bernardino County Federation of Women's clubs in Yucaipa.

Speaking from here were Mrs. Ray R. Sherwood on "Americanism;" Police Chief Eugene L. Mueller on "Our Interest in the American Youth" and Mrs. A. R Kipp, who is chairman of the international relations committee.

CAPTAIN TAYLOR IN PLEA TO "WRITE"

Captain Wallace C. Taylor, who has been in the U. S. air corps for several years and who has just returned after 13 months' imprisonment in Roumania, appealed to the public to "send mail to the boys in service."

He spoke at the meeting of the Upland Lions club in the Upland Woman's club house at noon yesterday.

"Receiving of mail is a big morale builder for the men overseas," he emphasized. "Mail is quickly and easily handled and letters from home make the men feel like doing their job better. At best, conditions are not satisfactory but a letter from home makes a world of difference."

Captain Taylor answered many questions from the Lions about life as a prisoner of war. He informally spoke of his experiences but his closing appeal was for Uplanders to write regularly and often to their friends and relatives in service—especially those over seas.

Glenn M. Atwood served as program chairman with President Everett W. Henry presiding. Guests included Darwin Brest and D. E. Palmer.

VOTE ACTIVITY CENTERING IN UPLAND-ONTARIO

Upland and Ontario republican and democratic party leaders are battling today to persuade independent voters of the West End to support their respective candidaes for president of the United States, United States senator and congressmen as the campaign goes into its final two weeks and election date November 7 looms closer.

Large numbers of newcomers now residing in both communities lend uncertainty to election results.

Since the May primary, 1200 new voters have been registered in Upland and Ontario, with the republicans gaining in numbers, but the democrats narrowing the percentage of difference. Upland now has 1791 registered republicans and 1275 registered democrats and Ontario has 4122 republicans and 3923 democrats.

A Los Angeles representative of the "Democrats for Dewey" committee was in Upland yesterday talking to democratic friends with the hope that a similar committee might be formed here.

Earl S. Webb, republican candidate for congress has announced that he will be in the West End next week and Upland-Ontario democrats expect Congressman Harry Sheppard, democratic incumbent, will be here before the election.

The relative strength or weakness of President Roosevelt and Gov. Dewey is expected to exert considerable influence on other candidacies and both parties are striving to get as many Upland-Ontario votes as possible because of the closeness of the race in California, with indications that as California goes this year so will go the election.

Democrats privately admit that Lt. Gov. Fred Houser has an excellent opportunity of defeating Sheridan Downey, democratic United States senator seeking re-election, but republicans are not too optimistic about Earl Webb's chances of defeating Congressman Sheppard.

Household Kits for Russian Families To Be Packed Tuesday

For the past several weeks members of the Wesleyan Guild class of the Upland Methodist church have been collecting money and articles for household kits to be given to every Russian family returning to their homes where the Germans have been driven out.

The cost of each kit is about three dollars, and they now have assembled material for 53 packages. The cartons have arrived from headquarters, and on Tuesday evening the group will meet in Fellowship hall to pack the boxes. Any other persons who are interested in assisting are invited.

The project of helping Russian families to acquire a few little household necessities is sponsored by the Inter-Faith committee on Russian Relief composed of representatives from the Protestant, Russian Orthodox and Jewish faiths.

200 REGISTERED IN NIGHT SCHOOL

Dr. Ralph E. Berry, director of adult education at Chaffey college, announced today that 200 persons are registered in night school classes. Registration is still being accepted in all classes, he said.

Instructors of classes already formed and the subjects they teach are Mrs. James A. Martinez, Americanism, a course to help pass citizenship examinations; Miss Celesta Scott, beginners' shorthand; Mrs. Emma Luebbers, advanced shorthand; Manuel Villegas, Spanish conversation; Raul Coronel, advanced Spanish; Rebecca Goforth, beginning and advanced typewriting; Ralph Coleman, machine shop; O. E. Felsch, aircraft engines; J. E. Hurling, slip-cover making.

If sufficient registrations are received, classes will be started in public speaking algebra geometry, trigonometry, bacteriology, chemistry, physics, bookkeeping and business English, Dr. Berry said.

A course in electronics under the jurisdiction of the university of Redlands is being taught by L. J. Jones at Chaffey college. This course is open to the public free of charge.

Shock of Parachute Opening Like Car Hitting Wall at 35 mph., Rotary Told

When a parachute opens in mid-air, the shock a paratrooper gets is equivalent to driving an automobile 35 miles an hour into a solid concrete wall, Pvt. Richard Eichorn of Ontario, told members of the Upland Rotary club at their luncheon meeting Wednesday in the Upland Woman's club house.

Pvt. Eichorn and Pvt. Jimmy Vojkufka, graduates of Chaffey high school, who entered the army together two years ago and recently completed their paratroop training at Camp Mackall, N. C., are home in Ontario on 10-day furloughs before reporting to the New York port of embarkation for overseas service in the airborne army.

Each paratrooper carries two parachutes, Pvt. Eichorn explained. The main one is 28 feet in diameter, made of silk, and costs $1,000. A 15-foot cord locked to the plane causes it to open automatically. The reserve or emergency parachute is made of nylon, costs between $850 and $900, and is 24 feet in diameter. The paratrooper opens it by pulling the rip cord.

Before a paratrooper makes his first jump, he is taken to a "sweat house" where he is entertained with such music as "I'll Be Seeing You" and "I'll Be Here When You're Gone".

Pvt. Eichorn said the first jumps are made in a half-daze and that it takes four leaps before the trooper awakes to the realization of what he is doing and gets scared.

Pvt. Eichorn in army uniform weigh 174 pounds, but carrying full jumping equipment he weighs 375 pounds. Paratroopers carrying full equipment never walk, he said; they are always on double time and must be able to run over or through obstructions at night.

Paratroopers are expected to be tough enough to fight any three men in other units of the United States army, he said. They must be able to reassemble any type of weapon while blindfolded and must be familiar with all types of enemy weapons and ammunition.

Pvt. Eichorn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Eichorn, 1285 East Kingsley, and Pvt. Vojkufka is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vojkufka, 422 West Francis.

Dr. H. T. Goslin and Toivo Stevens were introduced as new Upland Rotary club members.

SECOND FORUM AT CHAFFEY TONIGHT

Hubert Clinton Herring, professor of Latin American civilization at Claremont colleges, will address the second Community Forum at Chaffey civic auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock, on "The Other Americas".

He will discuss Latin-America in war and in peace, the next steps in western hemispheric policy, the economic basis of inter-American planning and the promise of pan-Americanism, and will outline the roles of Mexico, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru, Colombia, Haiti and other American nations in the postwar world.

For 20 years Prof. Herring has specialized on Latin-America and has made more than 40 trips to the southern republics, living in one or another for substantial periods. He has known presidents and peasants and is in constant touch with writers, politicians, businessmen and artists there.

He is the founder and director for 18 years of the Committee on Cultural Relations with Latin-America. He is the author of a number of books on Latin-America and its people.

He is known for his tough realism in international affairs. He declares the romantic sheen on much of the current talk about hemispheric solidarity must be washed off before we can have any helpful realism. He has considerable skepticism as to how far the current flood of "goodwill" can take us, but argues for building strongly for a better all-American understanding.

HOME BUILDERS TO BE ADVISED

First of a series of 20 lectures on home planning sponsored by the Upland and Ontario chambers of commerce under auspices of the Chaffey adult education department will be offered next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Merton E. Hill auditorium at Chaffey college.

The lecture course of the Home Planning Institute is free and two lectures will be presented on successive Wednesday evenings. J. Dewey Harnish is institute chairman and Upland-Ontario businessmen are paying necessary costs.

It is felt the lectures will fill a definite public need, prevent many building mistakes and make for a better community.

"Why Plan Now" and "Contemporary Homes" will be the topics next Wednesday. Qualified lecturers will be supplied by various trade associations for later lectures, covering such subjects as selection of the site, description of material, roofing, electrical and plumbing installations, color in the home, financing and related topics.

All authorities agree, Mr. Harnish said, that a large number of people are interested in home planning. It is important that this large cross-section of the public be informed regarding design and layout of a home, the best methods and materials to employ, and the most economical procedure so that they may obtain the most for their building dollar.

Postwar Peace Plan Outlined at Upland "First Time Voters" Banquet

Good natured banter and serious discussion of citizenship and postwar peace were mixed with professional entertainment and an excellent dinner to make the "First Time Voters" banquet at the Upland Woman's club house a never-to-be-forgotten occasion Tuesday evening.

Judge J. F. T. O'Connor of the United States district court of Southern California at Los Angeles, told the audience jamming the club rooms to near capacity that the United States should insist upon American justice in the postwar world or repeal the laws under which we live.

He advised against conclusion of a formal treaty this nation will be bound to respect but which the axis nations would ignore, and offered a three-fold peace program. The three points were to feed all babies and destitute persons, to require German nationals to rebuild property they have destroyed in other countries, and to bring axis criminals to trial.

MUELLER PRESIDES

Eugene L. Mueller, program chairman, introduced Owen E. Atwood, president of the Upland chamber of commerce, the banquet sponsor. Mr. Atwood said it is a tribute to our democracy that we can vote by secret ballot for leaders of our own choosing in wartime.

Wiley Mather, head of the social science department at Chaffey college, said there is a great deal of volunteer work in the field of government at the local level, referring to members of the city council, planning commission, library board, and others.

Mrs. James A. Martinez declared most Americans acquire their citizenship when the doctor says "it's a boy, or it's a girl", but complimented those who attain their citizenship the hard way, after years of study and examinations through the naturalization processes.

Norman S. Lawson, master of ceremonies, introduced the speakers and entertainers. Louis Valterza, the "Tuck" of "Nip and Tuck" of radio fame, played two accordion solos and came back for an encore. Mrs. Charles Hawthorne, accompanied by Alice Rose Wilson, received thunderous applause as a vocal soloist; Miss Jeanette Walkinshaw, Chaffey college student, played "Rhapsody in Blue" on her trumpet and blew the call to colors and retreat of colors for the State Guardsmen.

CITY COUNCIL IN SUPPORT OF HOUSING PROJECT HERE

Upland city councilmen last night unanimously endorsed location of a federal project in this city to house employes of the Kaiser Co. shell plant after taking cognizance of problems which must be solved and after hearing expressions from many of the 40 persons present in the council chamber.

The audience was largely sympathetic toward the housing project but the councilmen delved thoroughly into all objections. They determined the problems could be answered, then adopted a resolution of cooperation as Upland's contribution toward winning the war more quickly.

SCHOOL PROBLEM CITED

A letter was read at the meeting signed by Harold W. Cook, superintendent of Upland schools, stating that a meeting of the school board had been held Wednesday and that if the housing project is completed February 15, 1945, five to seven new teachers will be required to teach 160 to 290 additional pupils, that teaching personnel is 18 per cent below normal in the state resulting in uncertainty whether teachers could be obtained and that the school budget was adopted in August and savings could not be made to absorb the added cost. The letter added the increased attendance would necessitate changing to a half-day schedule in some of the grades.

ONTARIO MANAGER WRITES

A letter was also read signed by Neal D. Smith, Ontario city manager, stating the Ontario city council had asked him to point out the sewerage treatment plant is overloaded and that construction of 200 additional houses would place a serious burden on sewage disposal facilities.

J. Dewey Harnish, architect, told the Upland councilmen that under the Lanham act the federal government can help meet both these problems.

Objections were raised by H. C. Meek, Mrs. S. S. Myers and Mrs. Grace Henderson that undesirable persons might be certified to reside in the houses and that gases emitted from the steel plant might desolate the counryside.

Those objections were answered by Otto Roen, executive director of the Los Olivos housing project, A. W. Zimmerman, construction foreman at the Shell plant who resides on Campus avenue, and by Wendel Maple and Thomas Griffith, Los Olivos residents, who said the project officials would have some choice in the selection of tenants and that while copper smelting throws off gases, it was emphasized that steel making does not produce nauseating gases and the spokesmen pointed out that walnuts, grapes, flowers and shrubbery grow on the grounds of the Kaiser plant in Fontana.

NEED IS CITED

Mr. Roen said the Kaiser company has been asked to produce shells quickly and that 400 units will be necessary to house workers. He said a survey developed Upland was better able to cope with housing problems than San Bernardino or Fontana, which are already overcrowded with war workers.

Each councilman expressed personal approval of the project, recognizing problems will have to be solved as they arise, and Mayor Eugene Nisbet expressed their sentiments when he said: "Our guests are coming and we shall just have to put a little more water in the soup."

ONTARIO ASKED SEWERAGE COSTS

Request has been made of the Ontario city manager for a report of costs of operating the sewage disposal plant used jointly by Upland and Ontario, City Manager Richard G. Manley told the Upland city council at its meeting last night.

Enlargement of the disposal plant to better serve Upland and Ontario is a postwar project and knowledge of the costs is necessary before the Upland council can enter into the contract with Ontario.

Copy of a letter written by the Currie Engineering Co. to City Manager Neal D. Smith was read at the meeting, in which the engineering company said it would draw the plans and specifications and supervise construction for eight per cent of the construction cost and stated it would want $500 upon acceptance of the plans.

Bids For 200 Houses Will be Opened Nov. 20

Actual construction of the 200 temporary houses is scheduled to be started here about November 21, with the completion date 90 days later, according to a tentative work schedule revealed today by Otto S. Roen, executive director of the Upland Housing Authority.

On about November 10, contractors will be officially notified of the proposed work with the bids to be opened 10 days later.

It is possible two or three major contractors will be given contracts—one to manufacture the structures in a pre-fabrication plant; another one to prepare the sites and install the public utilities and curbs, and a third contractor to erect the temporary dwellings after they are delivered from the factory.

FURNISH DWELLINGS

Each dwelling will be furnished. The furnishings will include in the kitchen—sink, ice box, range and water heater; in the living room—divan and chairs, dinette table and chairs; in the bodroom — either twin beds or one double bed and two dressers, and the bathroom will have a shower, lavatory and toilet, according to Mr. Roen.

Half of the houses will be of one bedroom construction and in floor space will be 13 feet by 30 feet. The other houses will have two bedrooms and will be 13 feet by 38 feet in size.

The rental figure will be set by a federal agency, but will be in keeping with the OPA schedule, Mr. Roen said.

TO BE INSULATED

Of plywood construction and insulated throughout, the dwellings will be "liveable" and somewhat larger than most temporary housing projects, described the director.

Site for this city's war-time temporary housing project is the 20-acre tract on the east side of Campus avenue from Eleventh street to Foothill boulevard.

Ministers' Union Announces Plan For V-Day Service

Upland Ministerial Union is asking the cooperation of the chamber of commerce, the American Legion, Upland businessmen and other groups to join together in a one-hour V-Day service when hostilities end in Europe, it was announced today.

The plan adopted at the ministerial union meeting is to have one service at the Presbyterian church where one minister and one layman of each Upland congregation will speak for one minute each.

An effort will be made to work out some plan by which stores will close when announcement of the end of the war is made and as many persons as possible come to the church.

Twenty-four western artists who have not previously exhibited at the show are included among the exhibitors this year and paintings of familiar artists will be on display.

The oil paintings are competing in the $400 purchase-prize offered for the best in the show and the water colors are competing for the $100 prize. Both paintings selected become a part of the permanent collection of the Chaffey Community Art association on exhibit in the Chaffey community.

Chaffey Forum Club Hears Miss Latimer

All races of the world mingle in Hawaii where they live next door to one another, attend the same churches and schools and intermarry, each contributing to one community life, Janet Latimer, daughter of Dr. James V. Latimer of Upland, told the Forum club at Chaffey college Monday.

She said there are few pure Hawaiians left in the islands. The large racial groups are the part Hawaiians, Caucasians, Japanese, Chinese, Filipinos, Portuguese, Puerto Ricans, Koreans and Negroes, in approximately that order, with representatives of every other race and nationality origin among the inhabitants.

All are called "Americans," she said. The Japanese are familiarly referred to as "AJA's," meaning Americans of Japanese ancestry.

Miss Latimer attended the University of Hawaii one year and for six years was with the Y.W.C.A.

Judge O'Connor Tells Of Great Joy in Speaking Here

That Judge J. F. T. O'Connor enjoyed his appearance here on Tuesday as much as did his responsive audience is indicated in the letter received today from him by Eugene L. Mueller, who was chairman of the committee in charge.

Judge O'Connor was the speaker at the First Time Voters' banquet sponsored by the Upland chamber of commerce. His letter follows:

"Before I start a rather busy day in my court, I want to drop a line to tell you how thoroughly I enjoyed last evening, and to thank you for presenting me to so intelligent and enthusiastic a group of your fellow citizens. I don't know when I have had a more enjoyable evening. I appreciated very much the response of those who attended the dinner."

A "New" Upland is Ahead; Let's Prepare for Changes

A "new" Southern California and with it a "new" Upland is ahead. Thousands of new people will come to the southland just as soon as the Axis powers are defeated. With them will come new industries—and countless new "problems".

Yes, the same "problems" that are always concerned with expansion and new developments.

It is generally agreed that the establishment of the Kaiser Co. industries east of here marked the beginning of the new era of industrial development in what up to now has been an agricultural district. This big industry will attract others and in not many years distant an industrial empire may extend from Upland to Fontana. All of which will mean thousands of people.

The era of "status quo" is past.. The citrus industry here, the finest in the state, can continue to be a major factor in providing the nation with the choicest oranges and lemons. Far-seeing leaders in the citrus industry no doubt recognize the changes that are likely to come and are cognizant of some of the problems that must be faced.

Perhaps the "growing pains" will be a little disturbing.

Announcement that the Federal Public Housing Authority had selected Upland as the site for 200 temporary houses inspired "mixed feelings". Naturally and rightfully there were some protests and some concern shown as to how problems of adjustment would be met. Generally speaking, however, the project is heartily endorsed and the city council last night unanimously adopted a "resolution expressing full cooperation".

We cannot build a wall around the city—thank goodness.

This, a citrus community for 50 years, may some day soon be an enlarged residential and industrial community.

Upland, always one of the finest communities anywhere, has grown slowly but steadily. A solid municipal foundation has been established. Fundamentally, the community is ready for growth and development.

If, personally, and as residents, we can recognize the fact that a new era is approaching, we can better be prepared for the changes.

Every public service will have to be extended, perhaps. A new source of water must be found—and a committee right now is studying the feasibility of membership in the Metropolitan Water district. The Upland city planning commission is charged with the responsibility of planning for the future. Of course, these men and women will have before them the conception of the changes that are likely to come.

Whether everyone likes it or not, Southern California—and Upland—will change. It is up to us to prepare for the changes—and to make the most of our opportunities.

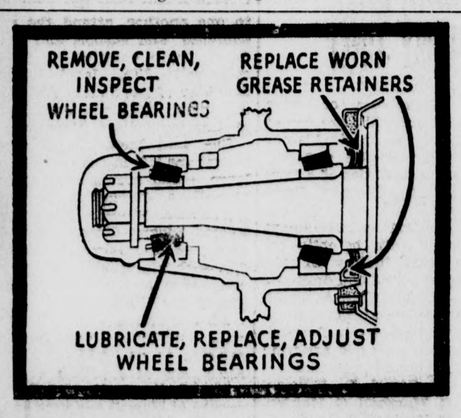

Meeting Tonight to Organize New Church

Organization meeting of the Fundamental Baptist church will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the home of Mrs. Emma Hogan, 138 G street.

The Rev. J. H. Norris said the public as well as the members of the Fundamental Baptist church are invited. The meeting will be devoted to Bible study and to matters concerned with the church organization.

The Rev. Mr. Norris said that he was pastor of the Tempe Baptist church at Phoenix, Ariz., and came to Upland last Saturday.

Industry and agriculture are interdependent; agriculture is industry's best market and industry is agriculture's best market.

STANDARD OF CALIFORNIA

The Editor, Upland News:

May I respectfully submit this letter in reply to one which appeared in the Tuesday issue of your paper?

On what grounds can Mr. Meek, who so bitterly resents the erection of additional homes in this community, base his assertions that living conditions in such homes are on a lower standard than those in any other part of this city?

The residents of Los Olivos, a government "slum clearance" project, who could not find any other living accommodations, have just the same kind of families as other citizens. Their children attend the church of their choice, and under state law, are entitled to an education.

Whether or not the proposed temporary houses are erected, the fact remains that those who ARE residing in the present "project" have every right to resent being referred to as "riff-raff and the scum of civilization", for it is a published fact that the new housing will be operated by the same management which has successfully carried Los Olivos through its first year; and why should there be any reason to expect that any radical change will be made by them?

Let Mr. Meek realize that there is a war going on and that the best of American manhood is daily being sacrificed. War always disrupts the living pattern of a nation, but that pattern need not be one of misery designed to create a "menace and outrage to our ideals".

The very fact that these proposed houses are not to be of a permanent nature should assure him that when war restrictions are removed, countless new homes of desirable and permanent plan will come into being, a great share of them built by the savings of many of these war workers whom he designates as being "undesirables".

It is indeed heartbreaking to think that after all the sacrifice and misery caused by the war, human beings cannot learn to live in peace and harmony with each other, but that some shall always be "riff-raff" and the rest live on in prosperity and comfort.

A resident of Los Olivos.

RUTH M. ENNIS

To Mr. Meek Through The Upland News—

Beneath a rugged California mountain skyline lies the Los front industrial war.. These homes are clean and appealing to the eye. The grass in front of each individual home is growing fast and those little olive trees are maturing rapidly. No "rough-neck brats" have tramped them down. One of those homes on San Ysidro is mine. The word definitely is "home", too. I am proud of living here. I am proud of my family, my kid brother, and two sisters, Mother and Dad. They are the best family anyone ever had no matter where they live. We go to Sunday school. The books on our bookshelves are the old favorites which occupy the shelves of every modern home.. There is a tennis racket by the door of my kid brother, left there when he came home from school.

When we march into the classrooms—one to grammar school, two to junior high, and I to Chaffey college, we look just the same as everyone else, including students who have always lived in Upland. Our morals are just as high and so are our grades.

Yet we and the rest of this small community have been referred to as the "riff-raff and scum of civilization". Why Mr. Meek and other Upland citizens, I don't think you understand the full story behind the industry of our great country. With the weapons from the assembly lines run by the average American, many living in communities like Los Olivos and the new collapsible houses soon to be erected nearby, have won the war so far. It is still not over so these folks must not give up the struggle now.

In this section of the country enough workers to successfully maintain the huge Kaiser steel mill at Fontana, can never be achieved without the migration of workers here. They are patriotic citizens and they cannot be stopped from coming here to work and win the war, so why not give them a place to live? Will those impromptu shelters be an eye-sore to the community? They will not be like the home the farmer has accumulated throughout the years, but they will serve the purpose.

Not so long ago I marvaled at a whole town of such houses at Hanford, Washington, where the big Dupont plant is. Imagine a town moved in, with stores, a bank, and even a movie where before was only sagebrush. Hanford deserves a salute for the part it has played in the war, and the decent upright citizens of Hanford, too. Is California any different from Washington?

Sixth war loan drive will be launched November 20 and will extend through December 16, S. George Little, special newspaper consultant of the war finance division of the treasury department, announced.

The national quota has been set at 14 billion dollars. Upland's quota has not yet been revealed, but the quota here was $375,000 in the fifth war loan drive when the national goal was 16 billion dollars. Upland oversubscribed its fifth war loan in June.

Mr. Little declared the war loan drive is "our number one obligation here at home," and stated people must not become complacent, feeling that relaxation in fianacing efforts will not prove harmful.

WHAT IS EXPERIENCE ?

EARL S. WEBB

One candidate for Congress advertises he should be elected because of "experience" — experience in spending other people's money, experience in spending more than was taken in during both war and peace.

For over 20 years Earl S. Webb has had another kind of experience" — experience in meeting a growing payroll and providing real jobs in his own factory, despite growing government strangulation. His experience has been that of the TAXPAYER not the TAX-EATER

$8,026 Received In Upland War Chest

Contribution to the Upland War Chest and Welfare Fund today reached $8026, just $1974 short of the goal, and solicitation started yesterday will continue for the next 10 days or until everyone in Upland is contacted, it was announced at noon.

The war chest executive committee expects to reach the $10,000 quota within the next day or two, inasmuch as the $8026 largely represents volunteer contributions and the bulk of the personal solicitation remains to be done.

Solicitation captains meeting at the city hall Wednesday evening under the chairmanship of Frank Davis, executive committee vice chairman and solicitation director, mapped out 16 districts in Upland and canvassers will go from house to house during the next 10 days to contact every family to whom a letter was not sent or from whom a contribution has not been received.

The solicitation will be continued after the quota has been exceeded, it was announced, as it is desired to have donations from every Upland family.

The Upland Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and the San Antonio Community Hospital sick baby fund will share $2700 of the $10,000 quota and 19 national and international agencies will receive shares of the remaining $7300. The Upland Junior Welfare league is participating with the Upland agencies but is not asking funds as it reports it has sufficient resources for its needs the coming year. Howard N. Mason is chairman of the executive committee.

While no special sale is underway in connection with the anniversary, Long Bros. are emphasizing their faith in Upland and the future.

The war seems to have given the American people a new interest in their railroads. Perhaps it is because they have seen the enormous war load the trains are carrying. Perhaps because so many people, including thousands in uniform, are riding trains for the first time.

As the war in the Pacific steps up, you'll see more and more S. P. locomotives pulling heavier and heavier war loads. In this advertisement, Southern Pacific shows you:

How to tell Locomotives apart

This is the "Big Bertha" of locomotives—Southern Pacific's giant Articulated Consolidation. These mammoth engines pull trains over the High Sierra and other western mountain ranges. "4-8-8-2" is an example of the universal "shorthand" used for designating types of locomotives in the United States. It means that there are 4 small wheels under the leading truck, two sets of 8 driving wheels, and 2 small wheels under the trailing truck. To tell locomotives apart, you simply count the wheels, separating the smaller wheels in the front and back from the big wheels that drive the locomotive. The Articulated Consolidation, or "AC", weighs more than 500 tons, with tender, is 125 feet long, and develops 6,000 horsepower.

These locomotives are known as "General Service" type ("GS" for short). They pull the streamlined Daylights and the Lark, as well as other passenger trains and fast freights. Length of engine and tender is 110 feet, weight more than 400 tons, horsepower 5,500.

4-10-2

Originally designed by Southern Pacific, these engines are appropriately known as "Southern Pacific" type. They have three cylinders instead of two. Length of engine and tender is 101 feet, weight 368 tons, horsepower 4,100.

4-8-2

These powerful and faithful engines are universally known as the "Mountain" type (designated by "MT" on the cab), used in both freight and passenger service. Length of engine and tender, 97 feet. Weight, 330 tons.

This is another faithful locomotive known throughout the United States as the "Pacific" type (designated by the letter "P" on the cab). Engine and tender are 91 feet long and weigh about 285 tons.

VOTE PROPOSITIONS ANALYZED AT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Analysis of the 12 proposed amendments to the California constitution to be voted upon at the election November 7 was made last night at a community meeting in the Upland junior high school auditorium by Wiley Mather, head of Chaffey college.

The school of instruction was sponsored by the Upland chamber of commerce and attendance was much larger than had been anticipated.

WEBB SAYS VOTERS WANT A CHANGE

It is no easy job campaigning in the summer, especially when your district takes in San Bernardino county, the largest in the United States, yet this task has been accomplished by Earl S. Webb, Republican nominee for congress. Desiring to know the wishes of the rank and file of the voters, Webb has visited and talked with people in every area of the 21st congressional district which also embraces a large part of Los Angeles county. "I found out what they wanted," declared Webb, "they want a change in the next administration."

Mrs. X, who had two sons in the Marines and a daughter in the WACS, was visiting a farm when she came upon a youth of draft age milking a cow.

"'Cos there ain't any milk at that end, missus," was the calm reply.

175 Hats To Interest Woman's Club Tuesday Afternoon

"From Hobby to Profession" is the short, short story of Malinda Kay, the "Lady With the Hats", who will entertain members of the Upland Woman's club at their meeting Tuesday afternoon in the club house.

It all began several years ago when she inherited a small collection of unique and historic hats. She became interested in their stories, and today's result is the collection of 175 hats and a witty and informative lecture describing them.

The interest in hats led naturally to an interest in costumes of a character and period to fit the hats, and the 27 pounds of clothing with which she begins her lecture are gradually reduced to bring her audience from the history of 100 years ago down to the present time.

Mrs. Marion Maxwell, club president, will open the meeting at 2 o'clock with a business session, and the program will follow.

EVERY RESIDENT IS ELIGIBLE

Every family in Upland, Alta Loma, Cucamonga, and Etiwanda is included in the Upland Merchants' Dividend Day. A directory has been especially compiled by The Upland News. This directory includes every house address in these communities—Upland, the outlying district, and the three communities east of Upland.

A page number and line number are selected in a drawing to determine where the "Dividend Day Man" will call with the award. Thus, an address is selected from the directory. If the family receiving the call qualifies by having sales slips, the award is presented. The call is made at 6 p. m. every Monday. The sales slips must be dated Saturday.

The dividend sales do not have to be for cash, a "charged" sales slip being acceptable. In all fairness, however, a sales slip for payment on account cannot be eligible for use on dividend day.

WHITE LINED SHADES
mean better light

Good light protects precious eyesight. By replacing the dark-colored lining in a lamp shade with a white lining, you can as much as double the light with no additional use of electricity! There are two ways of doing this: Spray or paint parchment shades with white or light colored paint, or roll the lamp shade on white paper and pencil mark to cut, as shown. Then fit the lining into the shade and fasten the seam with scotch tape. For fabric shades, use white or light material.

CHAFFEY TEACHING WAR PRISONERS TO HARVEST GRAPES

German prisoners of war assisted by instructors furnished through the Chaffey schools, are harvesting grapes in the Cucamonga district and while the labor shortage problem remains, growers are expected to net satisfactory returns, it was reported today.

Stone L. Virene, farm placement manager of county agricultural extension service, announced that 250 Germans are harvesting grapes, walnuts, tomatoes and citrus.

GERMANS CHEERFUL

Mr. Virene said the ages of the men range from 18 to 40 years and that they are of cheerful temperament with no sullenness apparent. No fraternizing is allowed.

He said the farmers using them report the men do good work and that volume will increase as they get more experienced.

"Wherever good supervision is given by the farmers, good results are obtained," he said.

Ted MacLaren, manager of the Southern California Farmers association, reported 50 German prisoners of war are employed at the Cucamonga camp. The association is using 250 Mexican Nationals as well as migrant workers who have come to Cucamonga from the San Joaquin valley. He said the labor situation has improved as compared with past weeks, but that it will be a problem for the next six months.

FIVE INSTRUCTORS

The German war prisoners are stationed at Camp Ayres, Chino, Dr. Ralph E. Berry, director of adult education at Chaffey college, has appointed five German-speaking instructors to teach the war prisoners agriculture "in the field".

The instructors are Edmund L. Spies, Ed Rahn, Anton Zenz, Mike Kelber and Simon Konnerth.

The prisoners were brought from Florence, Ariz., by army personnel in charge of Lt. J. D. Carroll and Lt. Peter Jasitt.

PRICES HIGH

Grape growers who received $20 a ton in 1938, are receiving from $105 to $110 a ton from the wineries this year, and up to $140 a ton for grapes sent to eastern markets, it was reported. However, most of the Cucamonga district growers are members of cooperatives and under the pooling system it will be four years before they know exactly how much this season's grapes will return.

YOUR Sunkist REPORTER

A QUESTION FROM CLEVELAND

Today's column rounds out exactly half a year during which your reporter has explored various departments and activities of the California Fruit Growers Exchange. He's covered a good deal of ground, in his rambling way.

Surprising what varied activities the Exchange takes in. Everything from cutting lumber (for box shook) to studying poisons (for insects) to ringing doorbells (to learn how people use citrus fruit) and planning motion pictures (to show dealers how to display it).

Look at the Exchange one way and you see it as a communication system, keeping District Exchanges informed from hour to hour exactly where their fruit can be sold to the greatest advantage.

Look at it another way and you see it as a traffic organization, securing needed refrigerator cars, watching over every car of Exchange fruit in transit and collecting claims without charge.

Again you see the Exchange as a sales organization with 56 offices covering the whole of the U. S. and Canada, giving Sunkist growers the widest possible market for their fruit, so they can sell it at the best possible price. Or you can visualize it as an advertising and merchandising operation, increasing consumption of oranges and lemons, and building ever greater demand for fruit with the Sunkist name.

The Exchange is all these things—and a lot more. But the more you study them, the more you realize how they all gear together to perform one all-important function: to sell the grower's fruit for the greatest possible return. Every Exchange activity supports this aim. And all are carried on with an efficiency and economy possible only through co-operation—through many growers working together.

Which brings to mind a question that was put to your reporter one day last March in Cleveland.

★ ★ ★

Your reporter was going around calling on grocers with a salesman from the local Sunkist Office. The stores were mighty cold. On the way home we stopped for a cup of coffee.

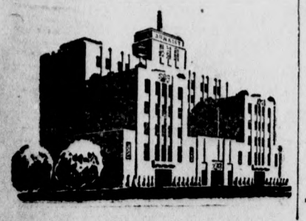

"There's one thing I can't understand," the salesman said. "The fellows in the other Sales Offices don't understand it either.

"For years we've been selling Sunkist oranges and lemons in competition with non-Exchange fruit. For years we've seen the Sunkist fruit get the call—seen it win out over the other fruit day after day, and bring a better price . . . How can any grower afford NOT to belong to the Exchange?"

With the post-war future drawing ever closer, when you as a grower are bound to meet very different conditions from today, it's time you faced that question squarely. Can you afford not to be a member of the Exchange? Prepare for that future by joining up with your fellow growers now.

Write to the Field Service Department at the Sunkist Building, Los Angeles, and simply say you'd like to talk to somebody about membership. They'll send a well-informed Grower Service man to go over things with you. Better do it—today!

HEMINGWAY'S FUR STORE TO OPEN SOON

Work is under way today on Upland's new fur store.

Providing the only fur storage in the west end of the county as well as an attractive fur sales room and office for the Karakul Fur farm will be the building at 270 North Second avenue. Harold K. Hemingway, proprietor of the farm, will open the new store and storage compartment in about 10 days.

The building being remodeled for Mr. Hemingway's needs was formerly occupied by Richard A. Ibanez, attorney, and at one time by Stearns Ingalls, accountant. The partition separating the two offices has been removed to make a large display room.

Mr. Hemingway's office will be placed in one portion of the building while a dressing room will open off the display and sales room.

A large fur storage compartment will be installed in the rear portion of the building. Mr. Hemingway pointed out this will be the only fur storage available in this area.

While the new downtown location will be used as office and headquarters for the large fur farm, a show herd of Karakuls will be maintained at the ranch on Benson avenue at Thirteenth street, Mr. Hemingway said.

PANTHERS LOSE TO S. B. 40-12

Chaffey college Panthers scored two touchdowns in the closing minutes of play Tuesday afternoon to avert a whitewash, losing to the San Bernardino junior college six-man football team 40 to 12.

The San Bernardino Braves scored 21 points in the opening quarter and added touchdowns in each of the next three quarters.

With the score at 40 to 0, Harold Cook, substitute halfback, made two touchdowns for Chaffey. The first came on a lateral from Quarterback Phillip Haines on the San Bernardino 30 yard line. A few minutes later, after a drive of 41 yards, he carried the ball across the goal from the two-yard line.

The game was the season opener for both Chaffey and San Bernardino in league competition.

UPLAND GRIDDERS DEFEAT CHAFFEY

Upland junior high school inaugurated its football season auspiciously by defeating the Chaffey high school freshmen on the Chaffey field 6 to 0 Wednesday afternoon.

Chaffey took command in the first half, out-playing and out-gaining Upland, but was unable to score. Upland started its offensive rolling in the second half and scored a touchdown in the closing minutes of the third quarter.

The game was the first of five scheduled contests between Upland and Chaffey and the second will be played next Wednesday on the Upland junior high school football field starting at 3 o'clock.

On November 16, Upland will play the Webb boys' school.

VOTE NO on No. 12

Governor Earl Warren, the State Chamber of Commerce, civic leaders, and a score of employer, employee, civic, veteran and church groups have come forward to oppose No. 12 on the ballot in the election, November 7. These leaders look upon No. 12 as a threat to industrial peace in California and as a dangerous attack on our united efforts to win the war.
